Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 2, 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Maeda (5,282,757).

In regard to claim 1, Maeda discloses a connector structure 25, comprising: a connector 7, having a tab terminal 19; and a housing body 27, having a tab receiving terminal for electrical connecting to the tab terminal 19, the housing body 27 is to be fitted with the connector 7, wherein a recessed face 31 for preventing interference is formed at a side portion of a front end of the housing body 27.

In regard to claim 2, Maeda discloses the recessed face 31 is formed so as to escape an air between the connector 7 and the housing body 27 when the connector 7 is fitted into the housing body 27.

In regard to claim 4, Maeda discloses a connector structure 25, comprising; a connector 7, having a tab terminal 19; a housing body 27, having a tab receiving terminal for electrical connecting to the tab terminal 19, the housing body 27 is to be fitted with the connector; and a front holder (front portion of 29), attached to a front end of the housing body 27, wherein a recessed face 31 for preventing interference is formed at a side portion of a front end of the front holder.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1 and 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Applicant's admitted prior art (specification pages 1-3) in view of Little et al. (3,966,290).

Applicant's admitted prior art discloses generally all that is claimed except for a tapered face for preventing interference is formed at a side portion of a front end of the housing body.

Little et al. teaches a tapered face 22 for preventing interference is formed at a side portion of a front end of the housing body 2 for ease in entry within the connector 34 and for protecting the connector housing from damage.

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Applicant's admitted prior art by constructing a front end of the housing body as taught by Little et al. in order to provide a reliable connector structure.
